

Subscribe

LOGIN

INDY/LIFE

Portugal's capital city benefits from fine weather almost all year round (iStock)

BEST HOTELS IN LISBON FOR STYLE, LOCATION AND VALUE

Our selection of the best hotels in the majestic Portuguese capital

Subscribe

LOGIN

Ellen Himelfarb, Jade Bremner

• Thursday 06 January 2022 12:41 •  Comments

Thanks for signing up to
Simon Calder's Travel email

It's no wonder everyone's banging on about Lisbon. Just look at it. It's a time capsule in the mould of Paris, with innovative restaurants and fearless design. The weather is flawless – warm enough in winter and cool enough in summer to explore unhampered. Plus, it sits handily in a GMT time zone.

As for hospitality, Lisbon occupies the sweetest of spots, offering VIP treatment at delightfully retro prices. All that makes the city a most unique prospect for a weekend break. Just make sure to go soon. All the attention is bound to get to its head.

The best hotels in Lisbon are:

- Best for families: Martinhal Chiado, Booking.com
- Best for the location: AlmaLusa, Booking.com
- Best for groups of friends: Hall Chiado, Booking.com
- Best for couples: Memmo Principe Real, Booking.com
- Best for views: NH Collection Lisboa Liberdade, Booking.com
- Best for feeling at home: Casa do Barao
- Best for a neighbourhood feel: Lisboa Carmo Hotel, Booking.com
- Best bargain design: Hotel Convento do Salvador, Booking.com
- Best for partying: Teatro B&B, Booking.com
- Best for staying in: Bairro Alto Hotel, Booking.com

The Independent's hotel reviews are unbiased,